That Take the Vacancies in the Circuit, and the Move is One that Strongthons the Longue from Every Point of View-The Steubles go to Akron on Monday -- Yesterday's Gante-Other News of Mport.

The expected has happened. The light patronage extended the lively team that Manager Moreland had gathered for Steubenville was very disappointing, and has ended in the transfer of the Steubenville team to Akron. Akron is a good ball town and would have been represented in the Inter-state at the start but for the throw-down by George Rhue at the eleventh hour. Kenton, too, will be dropped at the end of the present week, and Lime, which already has an excellent team, will drop the vacancy, With Wheeling, Columbus, Canton, Twin Cities, Akron, Mansfield, Lima and Fibidlay in the circuit, the Inter-state is unlly as strong as any of the Tri-state leagues of past circuit, the inter-state is anily as strong as any of the Tri-state leagues of past years.

On Wednesday night Moreland, of Steubenville, applied by tolograph to President Zigler, of the league, for permission to transfer his team to Akron and received the permission by wire the next merning, when he packed his grip and went over to Akron. There he found everything satisfactory, and the deal was completed, by which the Steubenvilles will play the balance of the week at that place with Mansheid, and on Monday will open with Findlay at Akron. Kenton, too, will play the remainder of the week at Twin Cities, and on Monday the Limas will take their place, opening at Columbus.

President Zigler yesterday tolographed Manager White, of the local team, tolling him of the two changes in the circuit above outlined. The president will slightly change the schedule. It is probable that the Akron date here on

HEELING'S ball hits than Findlay yesterday afternoon, home players, combined with the poor work of Anderson in the box in the third inning, when six Gas City boys scored, allowed the visitors to score an easy victory, 10 to 2. The Wheelings presented a very weak team. White was unable to play at short field and Brown, the regular left fielder, was away on leave. Kane was put in at short, Prince in left field and Smith, the pitcher, in centre. In the third when Anderson retired from the game, Kane was put in the box, Prince came in to short, and Kunkle, a St. Clairsville amateur, went into right garden. With amateur, went into right garden. With such a pol-it opposed to them it is no wonder Findlay won out.

Up to the third inning the game was exciting, but when Anderson went to pieces and gave bases on balls, hit batsmen and allowed two hits off his delivery, the Wheeling side of the score looked insimilieant in comparison with livery, the Wheeling side of the score looked insignificant in comparison with Findinys, who scored six unearned runs.

Wheeling scored no runs in the first and Findiny got but one. Gray, the first man up, knecked an ugly grounder to Anderson, who fumbled, and the runner was safe. The next two men went out, but Brandenberg got to first on Crotty's error. Gans then hit for a single and Gray scored.

The waterioo came in Findlay's half of the third. Gans started the fun with a base hit. Dirby went to first on four bad ones. Pasterius was hit by a pitched ball; so was Wilson, scoring Gans, a toreed run. Reidy hit to Regan, who fumbled and Derby came home. Gray sent one down to Crotty, who fumbled, scoring Wilson, with the bases still full. Ireland got a base on balls, and Reidy was forced in. Anderson was taken out, being replaced by Kano, Prince going to short. Cooke sent a grounder, Prince threw wild to the plate, letting another run in. Brandenberg went out from Prince to Keefe, and when the inning finally closed, Findlay had six runs on but two hits. The waterloo came in Findlay's half on but two hits.

on but two hits.

Kane pitched the balance of the gamo and did good work, only two hits being made off him. Findlay scored two more on bad work of the locals, one in the fourth and one in the fith.

Reidy was hit safe ten times, but he kept them scattered so that no runs were made after the fourth by Wheeling. The tale of wee:
